

Failure distributions are synthetic planning references derived from nominal Monte Carlo data.